

Dear Stanford Health Care Advantage Producer,

See the steps below to enter our rebranded portal experience and complete your certification for 2024, available as of today, July 14th, 2023.

The producer(s) will receive an invitation from essenceproducersupport@lumeris.com by the end of the day today to set a password to our portal and complete onboarding / certifications.

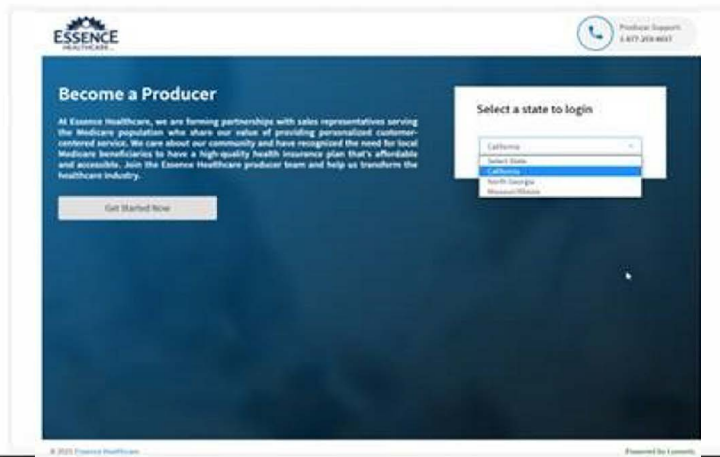

Producer should click on the “2024 Banner” inside of their producer portal to recertify.

Producers must certify separately for both 2023 and 2024 to write applications for both plan years.

NOTE: Producer’s login ID is their National Producer Number.
